ZVEREV VS. DIMITROV

Game Time: 07:05 pm ET

Watch: Fubo TV

Selection: ALEXANDER ZVEREV -1 1/2, +165

Alexander Zverev powered into the semi-finals of the Miami Open with a straight-sets triumph over Fabian Marozsan. Having not dropped a set in the Miami Open so far, Zverev will be confident of continuing his bid for glory and now faces Grigor Dimitrov, who upset top player Carlos Alcaraz later in the day. Zverev has been ranked as high as #2 in the world and he is the 2020 Olympic Gold medal winner.

There is a long history between these two and, despite the fact that both are world-class players, one player in particular has dominated. Zverev holds a 7-1 head-to-head record over Dimitrov, including a 5-1 record on hard courts. Not only did Zverev beat him in all four matches last season, but he only dropped one set and that came in a tiebreaker in set #2 in the U.S. Open last September. It's been a total one-sided affair and until Dimitrov proves that he can turn the tables, we will look in favor of the German and his aggressive baseline play. We love the value getting +165 with laying only one and a half games.
